

THE OLD BALL GAME

2018 Vintage Base Ball Association Conference

Menomonee, WI, March 23-25

Friday	Saturday Evening
Best Western Plus Sponsored hotel of conference Dunn County Historical Society Registration, Check In, Meet and Greet Silent Auction Begins Food, Beer vendors, Wine vendors, live music, games	Historical Mabel Tainter Theater for the Arts. Paid bar, free museum tours, social hour Shuttle from Best Western Plus to Theater provided Dinner & Keynote Speaker Duke and Dagger British Pub Clyde Doepner, Minnesota Twins Curator Silent Auction Concludes
Saturday	Sunday
Dunn County Historical Society Breakout Sessions, 9am – Noon 1860 themed lunch Playing Through African American Baseball in Dunn County exhibit Vintage Base Ball Match @Phelan Park (snow or shine) Shuttle from Best Western Plus to Field provided	Dunn County Historical Society Breakfast VBBA Executive Meeting Annual Business Meeting Elections/Roundtable Possible Vintage Match as morning concludes

Saturday Presenters – Dunn County Historical Society

Joe Niese – author of “Burleigh Grimes: Baseballs Last Legal Spitballer” & “Handy Andy: The Andy Pafko Story”

Jerry Poling – author of “A Summer up North: Henry Aaron and the Legend of Eau Claire Baseball”

Frank White – author of “They Played for the Love of the Game, Minnesota Black Baseball”

Dustyn Dubuque – author of “Newell Burch: Surviving Andersonville”

Samantha Phillips – Grant writing and fundraising

Darrek Orwig – Period Clothing authenticity

Wade Lambrigsten – Vintage signs/logos

Rich Arpi – Stillwater, MN prison baseball team